

The Daily Attraction Mantra

The universe rewards clarity!

For the highest good of all concerned

by JJ Joshua

Volumes of information are now available to us regarding conscious manifestation. Since 1992 I have provided Co-Creation tools and practices for my clients that are fast, fun, and effective. This daily attraction mantra spoken out loud with enthusiasm and a potent expectancy of good—becomes a deeply empowering daily practice. Enjoy!

For more information read my article: Five Kinds of Creation

When activating any manifestation practice, please include the phrase “For the highest good of all concerned.” This phrase aligns you with Divine Light and keeps you solidly in a place of Co-Creation with Divine Light and a Loving emanation.

"Every thought we think is creating our future. Love is the great miracle cure. Loving ourselves works miracles in our lives, and deep at the center of my being is an infinite well of love".

—Louise Hay

“To be happy with yourself in the present moment while maintaining a dream of your future is a grand recipe for manifestation.”—Dr. Joe Dispenza

I quickly learned that “The only way we can change our lives is to change our energy — to change the electromagnetic field we are constantly broadcasting. In other words, to change our state of being, we have to change how we think and how we feel.” (Dr. Joe Dispenza) It sounds simple in writing but in reality, it's a lot harder. There's no blueprint for success — it takes showing up every day. —Dr. Joe Dispenza.

The Daily Attraction Mantra

For the highest good of all concerned

The universe rewards clarity!

Start each day with this profoundly powerful attraction mantra, aligning with the Laws of Love and the Laws of Intention. Then enjoy the divinely guided results!

To power up this practice, declare this out loud in front of a mirror standing up!

I now attract to me, and choose to participate with the means*,
matter, opportunities, openings,
people, places, circumstances, resources,
ideas, training, education, connections, awareness, and Divine Right timing that will support my entire existence and my work, service, and contribution in the world, so I may become stronger in all and every way to support
Love's Highest Purpose through me!

I am willing to be guided by my Higher Self, and the Laws of Love, to receive and allow my highest good and the highest good for all concerned.

Thank you, Universe!

Let's do this!

*The reason we use the phrase "and participate with" is because sometimes we can attract a desired outcome into our experience, but then the subconscious mind may repel or reject that experience simply because it is unfamiliar to us and/or outside our comfort zone. Make sure you add the words: and participate with.
